Day 2: Adventure Begins

Today after breakfast, you take a half-day City, Temples and Grand Palace Tour. You will visit the famous Grand Palace. The palace was the former residence of the Thai kings. There are several things here to admire, including the Reception Hall, the Coronation Hall, the Funeral Hall, and the beautiful Temple of the Emerald Buddha, also known as "Wat Phra Kaew". Later, you will proceed to Wat Po, home of the enormous Reclining Buddha and one of the oldest and largest temples in Bangkok. Please note that modest dress is expected on Temples and Grand Palace Tour. Return to the hotel after the tour and the afternoon is yours to relax, or take the following optional tour.

OPTIONAL TOUR - MINIMUM 6 GUESTS REQUIRED. TOUR MUST BE PRE BOOKED.
$75pp

Travel on the Chao Phraya River (The River of Kings) and on through the Klongs (canals) of Thonburi. You will have the chance to observe and photograph the serene family homes and temples along the waterways, which gave the city the name "Venice of the East". You will also pay a visit to one of the most photographed sights in Bangkok, the Temple of Dawn (Wat Arun). The majestic shrine has a pagoda of 76 m high. It is decorated with glazed ceramic pieces, that reflect the rising sun and gave the temple. Return to the hotel after the tour. This evening, you will be picked up from your hotel and taken to the Pier to join the Manohra Rice Barge Dinner Cruise.

Cruising along the Chao Phraya River on this elegant, restored wooden rice barge, you will be introduced to Bangkok by night. Enjoy a delicious Thai Dinner (Royal Thai Menu) You will be transferred back to your hotel after the dinner cruise.

Day 3: Coral Island, Pattaya
